The Clinton St Baking Company Cookbook is a must-have for any home baker or fan of the iconic New York City restaurant. With over 100 recipes for everything from sourdough bread to decadent desserts, this cookbook will transport you into the heart of one of the city's most beloved culinary destinations.

James Beard Award-winning chef and owner Neil Kleinman and his team of talented bakers share their secrets for creating the restaurant's signature dishes, including the famous pancakes, cinnamon buns, and chocolate chip cookies. The cookbook also features stunning photography that captures the rustic charm of the Clinton St Baking Company and the joy of baking.

What's Inside the Cookbook?

The Clinton St Baking Company Cookbook is divided into nine chapters, each covering a different aspect of the restaurant's menu:

- Bread: Recipes for a variety of sourdough breads, including the restaurant's signature Pain au Levain

- Pastries: Classic pastries like croissants, danishes, and scones
- Tarts and Galettes: Rustic tarts and galettes filled with fresh fruit or vegetables
- Cakes: Decadent cakes like the chocolate layer cake and the carrot cake
- Cookies: Chewy cookies like the chocolate chip cookies and the oatmeal raisin cookies
- Puddings and Custards: Creamy puddings and custards perfect for a special occasion
- Savory: Recipes for savory dishes like the breakfast burrito and the roasted chicken salad
- Drinks: Recipes for a variety of coffees, teas, and juices

Each recipe is accompanied by clear instructions and beautiful photographs, making it easy for home bakers of all skill levels to recreate the Clinton St Baking Company's signature dishes. The cookbook also includes a glossary of baking terms and a troubleshooting guide to help you with any problems you may encounter.
