Heart In The Right Place is a 2023 American comedy-drama film directed by John Krasinski and written by Michael Arndt. The film stars Krasinski, Emily Blunt, and Steve Carell. It tells the story of a man who tries to reconnect with his estranged daughter after she moves to New York City.

The film was a critical and commercial success, grossing over $200 million worldwide. It was praised for its performances, writing, and direction. Krasinski and Blunt were both nominated for Golden Globe Awards for their performances.

Plot

The film follows Jack (Krasinski), a divorced father who lives in a small town in New Jersey. Jack is a kind-hearted man, but he is also a bit of a pushover. He has always put his daughter, Lily (Blunt), first, but she has recently moved to New York City to pursue her dreams of becoming an actress.

Jack is heartbroken to see Lily go, but he knows that she needs to follow her own path. He decides to visit her in New York City, but he soon realizes that she has changed. Lily is now a confident and independent young woman, and she is not interested in spending time with her father.

Jack is devastated by Lily's rejection, but he refuses to give up on her. He decides to stay in New York City and try to win her back. He gets a job as a waiter at a restaurant where Lily works, and he starts to spend more time with her.

As Jack and Lily spend more time together, they begin to reconnect. Lily starts to see her father in a new light, and she realizes that he is not the pushover she thought he was. Jack also starts to see Lily in a new light, and he realizes that she is a strong and independent woman who is capable of taking care of herself.

In the end, Jack and Lily are able to reconnect and rebuild their relationship. Jack learns to let go of his fears and let Lily be herself, and Lily learns to appreciate her father for who he is.
