A Journey through the Arc Classics

The Pro Eto collection of Arc Classics is vast and diverse, offering a literary adventure for every reader. Here is a glimpse into some of the most celebrated works, each a cornerstone of the literary canon:

- "The Metamorphosis" by Franz Kafka: An exploration of alienation, transformation, and the absurdity of existence through the eyes of Gregor Samsa, a man who awakens one morning to find himself transformed into a giant insect.
- "Ulysses" by James Joyce: A modernist masterpiece that chronicles a single day in the life of Leopold Bloom, capturing the stream of consciousness and the complexities of urban life in early 20th-century Dublin.
- "The Stranger" by Albert Camus: An existentialist novel that examines the themes of absurdity, alienation, and the search for meaning in a seemingly meaningless world.
- "Waiting for Godot" by Samuel Beckett: An absurdist play that explores the human condition through two vagrants who endlessly await the arrival of the mysterious Godot.

- "One Hundred Years of Solitude" by Gabriel García Márquez: A magical realist novel that follows the multi-generational story of the Buendía family, weaving together history, myth, and the complexities of human relationships.
